Contact Us

If you are a research participant, and have questions about your rights as a research subject, or wish to discuss problems, concerns, or other questions, or obtain information, or offer input, please fill out this form below. Please be aware that the IRB office cannot answer clinical questions, and your e-mail should not contain your personal clinical information.

For DUHS researchers who wish to contact the DUHS IRB office, we highly recommend that you contact your IRB Specialist responsible for your CRU/Department. Click Here for Staff Listing.

This mailbox is monitored Monday through Friday during business hours. If you wish to speak with a member of the IRB office, please call (919) 668-5111.

Please direct all technical questions about the eIRB, including any difficulty logging in, to the eIRB support staff at eIRB@mc.duke.edu
