Quality Improvement (QI) vs. Research (Policy and Checklist)

Policy Type
Review by the IRB

This policy describes the key differences between Quality Improvement (QI) activities in health care versus research involving human subjects. The end of the policy also contains a Quality Improvement vs. Research Checklist, to aid investigators who are trying to determine whether an activity falls in the realm of QI or research involving human subjects.

Click Here for the Quality Improvement (QI) vs. Research Policy & Checklist